The Permanent Mission of the State of Qatar to ICAO emphasizes Qatar's deep-rooted and continuing cooperation with all international and regional organizations, which is consistent with Qatar's foreign policy and role as an active partner in the international community. The Mission underlines Qatar's contribution to international civil aviation through its permanent and effective participation in ICAO events and initiatives, and in boosting cooperation and the exchange of expertise with all member states of the organization. The Permanent Mission of the State of Qatar to ICAO also acts as a link between the global aviation community and civil aviation entities in Qatar.

The three companies were established to provide a full range of complementary services in aviation regulation, particularly to support developing countries. TEASAS provides consultancy and training services for Aviation Authorities and the Industry. AQE performs tasks for and on behalf of an Aviation Authority, and TATA specialises in on-line training. The companies work with highly qualified/experienced experts, all of whom have either an ICAO, EASA or CAA background. They also offer a unique, bespoke tool-suite to support Aviation Authorities in fulfilling their responsibilities by delivering regulatory tasks effectively and efficiently, including their preparation for ICAO USOAP and Security Audits.
